About the LH Martin Institute

Tertiary education is a complex and rapidly changing environment in which to lead and manage. A strong understanding of its unique structure and complex policy environment is crucial to the success of your institution.

The LH Martin Institute for Higher Education Leadership and Management has been established to enhance tertiary education in Australia and New Zealand by providing a suite of programs and activities focused on institutional management and leadership within the sector. We are committed to developing the knowledge and skills of both current and aspiring leaders to ensure they meet their personal and institutional goals.

The Institute is interdisciplinary and has as its key objectives:

- to train the next generation of leaders of Australia's higher education and VET in the strategic management of their institutions;

- to provide a forum in which public policy makers, public and private sector institutions, and national and international experts can explore, assess and anticipate the changing national and international environment in which higher education and VET operates; and
- to support its educational programs with scholarship and research.

Our activities include postgraduate award programs, executive education programs, conferences, public seminars, research and consulting projects.

As a national Institute, established with the support of the Commonwealth Government and based at the University of Melbourne, our programs are conducted across Australia, New Zealand and internationally.

Executive Education Program 2010

The LH Martin Institute's Executive Education Program provides relevant and practical professional development for leaders and managers working in higher education, VET and private institutions.

This suite of programs has been specifically designed by the LH Martin Institute to meet the leadership and management development needs of the next generation of leaders in tertiary education.

Collaboration

In developing these programs the LH Martin Institute has collaborated with a range of local and international organisations to understand and address the professional development requirements specific to the sector. To find out more about our collaborative partners please visit the Institute website: www.lhmartininstitute.edu.au

A developing program

The Institute, in response to the needs of the sector, is continually developing and conducting new programs, research and other collaborative projects, to be kept informed we encourage you to subscribe online to receive the latest information via the Institute's monthly digital newsletter.
